

Graham Howard

(Canadian wildlife artist)

Internationally renowned, award winning, Canadian wildlife artist Graham Howard, is Canadas leading brushstroke artist. From his studio in Vancouver he has produced over 150 wildlife and outdoor activity images as well as innovative new applications in embroidery and new products for the giftware market.

In a few simple brushstrokes Graham creates a Zen awareness of the essential nature of his subjects. His distinctive style echoes a Less Is More philosophy on life. Grahams work has appeared in many major galleries around the world (as wearable art he adds!).
